

More of our brain is dedicated to vision than to any other thing that we do.

We are walking, talking,
vision-processing machines.